

THE IMPERFECT (PAST CONTINUOUS) TENSE

This tense is used to describe an action that was continuous or habitual eg I was swimming, I used to smoke.

For Type 1 Verbs eg δουλεύω (work)

To form the imperfect, add simple past endings to the present tense stem. So δουλεύω (I am working) → δούλευα (I was working, I used to work). For example:

γράφω (I am writing)	έγραφα	(I was writing, I used to write) έγραφες	(you were writing, you used to write) έγραφε	etc
	γράφαμε
	γράφατε
	γράφανε

The stress follows the same pattern as in the simple past and always falls on the third syllable from the end. So as with the simple past, an extra é- is added to make up 3 syllables if necessary (as in έγραφα above).

For Type 2A and 2B Verbs eg μιλάω (speak), θεωρώ (consider)

To form the imperfect, the stem is formed from the present by replacing -άω or -ώ with ούς

The same past tense endings are used. For example:

μιλάω (I am speaking)	μιλούσα	(I was writing, I used to write) μιλούσες	(you were speaking, you used to speak)
	μιλούσε	etc
	μιλούσαμε
	μιλούσατε
	μιλούσανε

For these verbs, the stress always falls on the ούς syllable (whether it is third from the end or not)

Other examples of the imperfect (past continuous) tense:

Present Tense		Imperfect
γελάω	I laugh, I'm laughing	γελούσα	I was laughing, I used to laugh αγοράζουμε	We buy, we're buying	αγοράζαμε	We were buying, we used to buy ρωτάω	I ask, I am asking	ρωτούσα	I was asking, I used to ask καπνίζω	I smoke, I am smoking	κάπνιζα	I was smoking, I used to smoke θεωρείτε	You consider, you're considering	θεωρούσατε	You were considering, you used to...
πεινάς	You are hungry	πεινούσες	You were (you used to be) hungry

For Passive Verbs eg σηκώνομαι (get up) κοιμάμαι (sleep) The Imperfect is formed as follows

σηκώνεσαι	σηκωνόσουνα	κοιμάσαι	κοιμόσουνα
